Residential Waterproofing Solutions

Before

After

Our pledge

ALPHASURE is the residential solutions division of the Flag-Soprema Group of companies. When you select an ALPHASURE roof or balcony, you can be sure that only ALPHASURE approved installers, who have been comprehensively trained and assessed by us, will be involved.

You can also be sure that our technologically advanced, modern materials are manufactured to the same high British and European standards as for all our commercial and public sector projects — such as Marks & Spencer, Ikea, Wembley Stadium and local authority schools and hospitals.

We're sure we provide the best value for money!

The specialist service you can be sure of!

New and refurbished flat roofs

Our service

ALPHASURE flat roofs and balconies are certified to provide a durable performance in excess of 40 years, with insurance-backed guarantees available.

Not only will they remain waterproof — they'll also keep their good looks too!

Our excellent reputation is based upon accurate assessments of roofing or waterproofing defects being made, and these being put right with as little disturbance as possible, as quickly as possible, and to the highest standards of professional expertise — all with your complete satisfaction in mind.

You're sure to enjoy a virtually maintenance-free roof!

Your peace of mind — guaranteed!
